

Parrot Kindergarten Dinosaur Week

In honor of Chilli (because he LOVED Dinosaurs):

We declare September 15 – September 21, 2022 as DINOSAUR WEEK (and as an unofficial Flamingo Festival because Chilli loved Flamingos, too!)

We invite you to get creative and explore all things DINOSAUR (and a little Flamingo) with your Flock!

This is a FUN week with nothing to log but memories. Take and upload LOTS of pictures and videos and share the fun.

Print out a copy of the Flat Chillisaurus. Take a picture of him doing activities with your Flock and post them for everyone to see!

Dinosaur Week Inspirational Resources

Following, we have provided a suggested weekly Dinosaur Unit along with an inspirational list of books, lesson ideas, resources, crafts, and other fun stuff to use, but that's all it is – for inspiration. Do what you like when you can. And if you find other Dinosaur (or Flamingo) ideas, books, and resources, use them instead (and please do share)!

Except for the list of physical books and some of the FUN Ideas, all the resources are free. Some require you provide an email address to receive the printables. We have noted whenever that is required.
